

Code of Conduct Policy

Good behaviour and discipline are key foundations for good education. Without an orderly atmosphere, effective teaching and learning cannot take place. We expect the highest standards of behaviour throughout our school.

Courtesy, good manners and consideration for others, together with self-discipline and respect for all are encouraged at all times and are important if we are to make our school a true, caring community. We place great emphasis on praising children for politeness and kindness to others.

The Head teacher will bring any serious breach of discipline or any disruptive behaviour to the attention of the parents concerned and an appropriate course of action will be decided upon.

A copy of the school behaviour and discipline policy is also available from the Head teacher and on our website.

All children are expected to make a full contribution to the school and support the positive endeavours of all its members. Rules are essential for the benefit of all in any community and we try to keep these as simple as possible, but we do expect them to be kept. They are:

Children should behave in a responsible manner and are expected to follow instructions.

Consideration, courtesy and respect should be shown at all times.

Everyone should always try to understand other people's point of view.

Children are expected to make it as easy as possible for everyone to learn and for the teacher to teach, whether this takes place inside or outside the classroom.

Children should always show friendship, kindness and care to others.

Children should be mindful of others' working conditions whilst walking around the school.

Children should always speak politely to each other and all adults.

The school should be kept clean and tidy so that it can be a welcoming place of which we can be proud.

Children should take pride in their appearance and possessions and have respect for other people.

Children should remember that the school's reputation depends on the way they behave.

Children should make every effort to attend every day and be punctual.
